Final report: comment

Since Indigo's arrival in February 2015, she has proven herself to be a very cooperative and attentive addition to the class in our school. All the teachers have been reporting positive impressions and comments, describing Indigo as an enthusiastic learner who is willing to adjust accordingly to the lessons and eager to improve in the subjects she has been studying. Her flexibility is apparent in the fact that she has always worked well within different group settings and also as an individual.

Indigo has engaged the challenges of studying the Italian language with a positive attitude and admirable effort. Her hard work has resulted in outstanding improvement and, considering the comparatively short period of time she has spent in Italy, she has developed a sound understanding of the concepts taught in the various subjects and excellent speaking skills.

Indigo has shown particular interest in humanities, attending lessons in Italian and English Literature, History, Philosophy, Art. Always arriving to class with a smile, she has listened carefully and participated selectively, worked with her peers, looked for ways to get involved in student life willing to accept her share of responsibilities. She has demonstrated keen interest in extra-curricular activities: she has gotten involved in the school volleyball team, she has joined the rehearsals in the school
